THE JOY OF SHARED GROUP EXPERIENCES

If you saw the season we have just closed, you will know why so many people are saying that summer 2023 is The Shaw's most remarkable yet. Certainly, the scale of ambition was unlike anything we have ever attempted: an astonishing range of great experiences in all our theatres, plus a dizzying array of concerts and events throughout our gardens and in our dazzling Spiegeltent. Add to that a record number of outreach and engagement events, and you have something pretty special.

But we are not resting on our laurels: quite the contrary. I believe that this year has shown what the Shaw Festival could be: a truly festive place, buzzing with life, fun and passion every day. We have big plans to make it so, and this coming season will represent another big step in that direction: great popular hits like Lerner and Loewe's My Fair Lady, Sherlock Holmes and the Mystery of the Human Heart and One Man, Two Guvnors, and a mouthwatering Royal George season with Agatha Christie's best murder mystery, Witness for the Prosecution, a Shaw favourite in Candida, and the evergreen classic The Secret Garden. These are all shows we expect to sell like hot cakes: So, book your group early!

In the Jackie Maxwell Studio Theatre we will continue our quest to find stunning plays you won't see anywhere else: Philip Akin, on a triumphant roll after Trouble In Mind (2021) and August Wilson's Gem of the Ocean (2022), will direct Marcus Gardley's steamy melodrama The House That Will Not Stand, while National Arts Centre Artistic Director for English Theatre Nina Lee Aquino will direct Snow in Midsummer, a magical telling of an ancient Chinese legend. The Orphan of Chao, our Royal George lunchtime show, will make a perfect companion piece. Where better than a sacred ancient meeting place like Niagara for people from every culture and background to encounter each other's artistic heritage?

Our mission is to create real human connections. It is about getting out of our isolated bubbles and remembering the joy of shared experience. Come to Shaw and rediscover your imagination, your curiosity and your capacity to be delighted.

MAY 4 – DECEMBER 22

This timeless classic has been dazzling audiences since its debut on Broadway in 1956. Based on the play Pygmalion by Bernard Shaw, it's the story of Eliza Doolittle, a cockney flower girl caught in the middle of a bet between Henry Higgins, a professor of phonetics and Colonel Pickering, a fellow linguist. With unforgettable songs such as "On the Street Where You Live," "I Could Have Danced All Night" and "Wouldn't It Be Lovely?" My Fair Lady is one of the most beloved musicals of all time – and now it's returning to The Shaw!

ONE MAN, TWO GUVNORS

EVERYBODY AT THE CIRCUS LOVES THE CLOWNS. SO, WHEN YOU SAY, “THIS MAN IS A CLOWN,” WHAT YOU’RE REALLY SAYING IS, “I LOVE YOU.”

ONE MAN, TWO GUVNORS

By Richard Bean

Based on The Servant of Two Masters by Carlo Goldoni

With songs by Grant Olding

Directed by Chris Abraham

JUNE 6 – OCTOBER 13

What do you do when you’re employed by a murderous gangster and a wealthy snob? You do everything in your power to make sure they never meet! This modern take on Carlo Goldoni’s Commedia dell’arte classic, The Servant of Two Masters, has it all: romantic romps, criminal capers and some of the funniest dialogue this side of Brighton. It’s a sure-fire crowd-pleaser that will not only keep you on the edge of your seat but will pull you right out of it!

THIS IS THE ENDGAME,

AND THE SPIDER REVEALS HIMSELF.

SHERLOCK HOLMES AND THE MYSTERY OF THE HUMAN HEART

By Reginald Candy

Based on characters by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

Directed by Craig Hall

JULY 24 – OCTOBER 13

Sherlock Holmes has never met a villain so clever, so compelling and so lethal. Has Holmes finally met his match? Find out in this new play by Reginald Candy, which delves deeper into the lives of the legendary detective, his trusted confidant Watson and Mrs Hudson, the landlady of 221B Baker Street. It's the third in our series, and it's filled with enough twists and turns to leave even Sir Arthur Conan Doyle guessing what happens next. The game is afoot!

OR WHETHER YOU ARE LYING NOW.

AGATHA CHRISTIE'S
WITNESS FOR THE

AGATHA CHRISTIE'S
WITNESS FOR THE PROSECUTION

Directed by Alistair Newton

APRIL 6 – OCTOBER 13

When a wealthy, older woman is found brutally murdered, there is only one suspect: her handsome, charming, and much-younger lover. Sure, he has a motive, but did he actually do it? Due to a strict, no-spoilers policy, we can't answer that question. Here's what we can say: the play is full of clever twists, witty dialogue and rising tension. If you're a fan of riveting courtroom dramas, don't miss this shocker.

Forced to move in with her reclusive uncle in Yorkshire, she is lonely and miserable—until she discovers a secret garden that's been locked away for years. As she tends to the dormant roses and overgrown vines, she soon finds that the flowers aren't the only things that are beginning to bloom. Adapted from Frances Hodgson Burnett's beloved children's novel, this enchanting story explores the theme of finding your true nature where you least expect it.

LUNCHTIME ONE-ACT THE ORPHAN OF CHAO

Adapted by Michael Man

Based on the classical Chinese drama,
The Great Revenge of the Zhao Orphan

By Ji Junxiang

Directed by Courtney Ch'ng Lancaster

JUNE 13 – OCTOBER 5 | ROYAL GEORGE THEATRE

Revenge story. Considered by many to be the Chinese Hamlet, this is an epic play about revenge, morality, and family. After a bloody palace power struggle leaves an infant orphaned, a benevolent doctor sacrifices his own son to keep the child alive, so he can avenge his family when he comes of age. It's one of the oldest plays in the Chinese canon, it combines beautiful music and insightful dialogue to create a powerful story that will stay with you long after the curtain closes. It's a powerful reminder that some family trees are rooted in blood and secrets.

WE ARE EXCITED TO WELCOME YOU AND YOUR GROUP TO THE SHAW!

We are already hard at work behind the scenes preparing a 2024 Season that has something for everyone! Novice thespians and seasoned theatregoers alike can look forward to our flagship mainstage production of Lerner and Loewe's most beloved musical, My Fair Lady, based on the work of Bernard Shaw himself! Or they can enjoy our heartwarming family-friendly production of The Secret Garden, the fabulous, riotous farce that is One Man, Two Guvvners, Agatha Christie's masterpiece whodunnit Witness for the Prosecution and so many more. Beyond the stage, we have handcrafted unique programming to complement the productions, promote conversation, and make your group's visit even more extraordinary.

There is nothing that warms our hearts more than seeing young theatregoers in our audience! We know that today's students are everyone's future leaders, and having them invest in the arts and communication early is very important for all of us. The Shaw offers plenty of opportunities for students and young people to not only attend theatre, but to participate in workshops and activities to further enrich their experience, improve their empathy, refine their presentation skills and to expand their understanding of the world around them. That way, as we pass them the reigns, we know we will be in good hands.

The Shaw Festival is also the perfect excursion for business and leisure! Why not bring your clients, friends, and colleagues to picturesque Niagara-on-the-Lake for an entertaining and idyllic group getaway? The very best of wine, food and culture in a world-class setting - what's not to love?! We will work hard to ensure your visit is absolutely perfect.

We truly look forward to welcoming you back!
